Bio of Jing Dong

Dr. Jing Dong received her Ph.D of Pattern Recognition from the Institute of Automation, Chinese Academy of Sciences (CASIA) in 2010. She is currently an Associate Professor in the National Laboratory of Pattern Recognition in CASIA. She is a senior member of IEEE. Her research interests include pattern recognition, image processing and image forensics. She has chaired in many scientific projects and technical session committees of major national and international conferences and published more than 30 technical papers on image forensics. She is now an associate editor for the "Journal of Information Security and Applications" and she also serves as the deputy-general of Chinese Association for Artificial Intelligence, deputy-general of China Society of Image and Graphics. She also has been a very active volunteer leader in IEEE since the year of 2008. She was the founding chair of IEEE University of Chinese Academy of Sciences (UCAS) Student Branch, the chair of Student Activity Committee of IEEE Beijing Section during 2011-2014, the 2009-2010 IEEE R10 Student sub-Representative (responsible for North-East of R10 zone), the Coordinator of R10 Electronic Communications & Information Management (EEC&IM) Committee during 2011-2012 and she is currently the coordinator of R10 Women in Engineering Committee and a member of IEEE MGA vTools Committee, WIE Committee and Ad Hoc Committee on China Strategy.